THEME---Youth's New World

VOLUME THIRTY-SEVEN

Published by TOM TOM CLASS, Central High School
Tulsa, Oklahoma

FOREWORD —

WE, THE YOUTH OF TODAY, go forth into the world of tomorrow looking eagerly for the fulfillment of mankind's oldest, most noble dream . . . a universal, just, and enduring peace. Our responsibility will be to mold the new world into a finer and better place for men to live. The destruction of the war will be ours to mend; the structure of a stronger and more democratic government will be our to build. Thus we are convinced that now is the time to prepare ourselves to meet the demands of the coming years. Because the responsibilities of tomorrow will rest heavily upon the shoulders of the young people of today, the TOM TOM staff has selected for the theme of the 1945 TOM TOM Youth's New World.

*D*EDICATION—

To you who will shape our nation's destiny . . .

To you who symbolize the ideals for which the battles of freedom have been fought . . .

To you who have the strength and the determination to accomplish tomorrow's tasks . . .

To you, the 1945 seniors of Central High School, as representatives of all youth, we, the

Our School Building . . .

The new Tulsa Central High School was opened for the first time in September, 1917. As the town grew, so did the school. The south half was added in 1922, completing the building as it is today, to cover an entire city block. It has one hundred and four rooms and floor space for ninety-six more such rooms, space used for business, maintenance, and other necessary purposes. Tulsa Central furnishes the laundry for all the Tulsa public schools and has the only high pressure heating plant in the school system. Central has four floors and an underground structure made up mostly of hot and cold air tunnels used in our ventilation system. Here also are located the laundry, boiler, and engine rooms. The school has three gymnasiums, two swimming pools, and two auditoriums. The north auditorium is used as a meeting place for maximum groups of one thousand and for showing educational motion pictures. The south auditorium is used for all plays, assemblies, and meetings of large groups. From 1918 to 1945 Central High School has had an enrollment varying from 1,116 in 1917 to 5,107 in 1939.

Lively students throng the northwest door at three-thirty.

Students loiter at the northwest door before going home.

Machine shops at Central High School train students for future vocations.

Tulsa Stadium, owned by the Board of Education, has a seating capacity of 15,000.

Nothing symbolizes the essential democracy of Central High School more than the working together there of the youth of all religions. For many years the administration has given guidance to the throng of in-coming and out-going students, guidance based upon the rock of fairness and tolerance. The hands of youth, groping for a philosophy, will, if properly educated, strengthen the moral fibre of the world.

Administration

BOARD OF EDUCATION

DR. CHARLES C. MASON, superintendent of schools; MR. J. A. WHITLOW, president;
MR. C. D. THOMAS, MR. FRANK A. STIVERS, MRS. WILLIAM GUIER, MR. ROY DEATON,
MR. GLENVER MCCONNELL, MR. FRANK SETTLE.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Tulsa Board of Education, made up of seven elected members, is the policy making body that points the way for the schools to follow. These respected citizens give generously of their time and ability without monetary compensation. In order to maintain the modern, efficient school system Tulsa now has, the Board is divided into a well-balanced arrangement of committees covering every phase of its program.

Mr. J. A. Whitlow is president of the Board and an ex-officio member of all committees. Mr. Charles D. Thomas is vice president and chairman of the finance committee.

Other committees with their chairman are building and sites, Mr. Roy Deaton; business relations, Mr. Frank A. Stivers; education and public information, Mrs. William Guier; health and cafeteria, Mr. Glenver McConnell; and personnel, Mr. Frank Settle.

Youth will play an important part in tomorrow's achievements. In classes at Central High School, students are preparing to make their contributions. The most extraordinary and extensive achievements will undoubtedly be made by research in the field of science. From tiny test tubes man will produce scientific wonders that will be of universal benefit to all mankind.

Classes

"Men, my brothers, men the workers, ever reaping something new:
That which they have done but earnest of the things that they shall do:
"For I dipt into the future, far as human eye could see,
Saw the vision of the world, and all the wonder that would be;
"Saw the heavens fill with commerce, argosies of magic sails,
Pilots of the purple twilight, dropping down with costly bales;
"Heard the heavens fill with shouting, and there rain'd a ghastly dew
From the nations' airy navies grappling in the central blue;
"Far along the world-wide whisper of the south-wind rushing warm,
With the standards of the peoples plunging thro' the thunder-storm;
"Till the war-drum throb'd no longer, and the battle-flags were furl'd
In the Parliament of man, the Federation of the world.
"There the common sense of most shall hold a fretful realm in awe,
And the kindly earth shall slumber, lapt in universal law."

LORD ALFRED TENNYSON in Locksley Hall

Seniors

The seniors are the ones most immediately concerned with the burden and outcome of tomorrow's world. Many of them will, upon leaving school, establish homes of their own out of which will rise a lasting peace. In their hands lies the destiny of future generations.

SENIORS OF 1945

THE PRESENT SENIOR CLASS began its activities in 1942 under the guidance of Miss Gertrude Rector. That year the sophomores chose Bill McCoy to act as president and under his leadership successfully completed their first year at Central. The class play, "What a Life," was enthusiastically received.

As they began their junior year Miss Rector relinquished her position to Miss Ednamay Weeks who was to direct their class activities for the remaining two years. With Don Guier as president the juniors enlarged their activities and took an even greater part in the school program. They performed an outstanding service in the scrap drives and bond sales and carried their enthusiasm into their classrooms and into the support of their class play, "That Girl Patsy."

The climax of eleven years' work came when, in the fall of 1944, they became the senior class. Fulfilling all the promise of the previous years, the seniors with Keith Miller as president performed an outstanding role in such activities as the speech arts plays, the class play, KVOO Day, the Daze, and Ritz Week. In addition to these all-school activities the seniors also found time to write and present their annual Christmas assembly, to compose a class song, and to take part in scholarship competitions and commencement week exercises. Not all seniors, however, will be here to participate in these activities. Many senior boys have been called into service; and others, both boys and girls, have taken advantage of the accelerated program by completing their work at the close of the first semester.

Juniors

Treasures of knowledge, the wisdom of the world, brought by air, sea, and land, will reveal their marvels to earnest students. As one flying up in an airplane looks down upon the panorama ever widening before him, so the juniors can see the expanding vista of their future lives and can know that knowledge will help them to go far.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

This year's junior class made their second year at Central a most successful one by wholeheartedly participating in school activities. Under the helpful guidance of Miss Lulu B. Beckington, class director, the junior cabinet planned a series of exciting activities for juniors. Among the achievements of the class of 1945 was the selling of an outstanding number of tickets to their popular play, "Junior Miss," presented on November third and fourth.

Juniors are eagerly awaiting next year when they may proudly display their class pins and rings, which were so enthusiastically chosen this year. When the final goal as seniors has been reached, their many worthwhile events participated in this year will not be forgotten.

Sophomores

Instantaneous and wonderful forms of communication will enable the sophomores of today to progress along the road of learning with giant strides. When they reach the end of their high school careers, they will be better prepared than any class before them to step into a world undreamed of by an older generation of students.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Under the guidance of their class director, Miss Gertrude Rector, and the able president, Mansel Cowan, the sophomore class has established an enviable record which foreshadows their future success throughout the next two years of high school.

This group's outstanding event of the extra-curricular year was the presentation of their class play, "The Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court," a delightful comedy enjoyed by students and guests alike. Undoubtedly the most important business of the members of the class this year was planning their complete high school future and recording the results on their three-year curriculum sheets.

The majority of the activities of the sophomore class depended largely on the home-room presidents who met faithfully every Thursday in room 303. Representing their respective home rooms as presidents were the following:

Many Central High School athletes have been engaged in a desperate fight for a common cause. In the postwar era these veterans will drop their dog tags and once again join the civilian workers on the home front to keep the wheels of industry turning in an attempt to rebuild the war torn world.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON

The Tulsa Central Braves ended their regular season undefeated for the first time since 1924. The team then marched to the state finals in the first play-offs in Oklahoma history, only to be defeated by a strong Classen team. According to their head coach, Melvin E. Riggs, the team was one of the best he had ever seen in his eleven years of coaching. The line, coached by Rex Peery, averaged about one hundred and ninety pounds per man. The backfield, coached by Walter Barham, was one of the fastest in the state.

A lot of credit for Central's successful season goes to the sophomore team, coached by Malcolm Orr, because those boys were the "A" squad's target. The week before each game the sophomore team learned the plays of Central's next opponent, and was thus able to give perfect practice opposition to the "A" squad.

Of the twenty-five boys who lettered, ten won special honors on the All-State, All-Conference, and All-City teams. On the teams, chosen by leading committees of the state, were Stanley Gwinn, quarterback; Johnny Walker, end; Charles Dowell, center; and Floyd Phariss, tackle. Stanley Gwinn and Johnny Walker won the highest honor a high school player could achieve: the right to play in the North-South game in Taft Stadium at Oklahoma City next August. The All-Conference

THE FOOTBALL PLAY-OFFS

ADA

In the first game of the play-offs, the Central Braves were considered to be underdogs, as they were in all the play-off games, but downed the Cougars 12-6. Sparked by Captain Stan Gwinn, the Braves outplayed their opponents in every way.

PERRY

With the wind the deciding factor, the Braves kept the ball for the last six minutes of the game to down the Maroons 33-26 in a see-saw battle. Headed by 195 pound quarterback Bob Cutsinger, the Perry team played a bang-up game of ball but could not stop the Central attack.

CLASSEN

The Braves were downed 26-6 in the finals by a fast and strong Classen team. Until the last six minutes, the Central team had the Comets trailing by three penetrations to their one. But the Comet's big Gerald Lovell, fleetfooted Alan Greenberg, and rangy Jim Owens breached the Central defenses in the last two minutes for three touchdowns to overwhelm the fighting red shirts.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Bill Vaughn shows us how to win that state meet next year.

Darrel Baker, R. C. Slocum, and Bob Gregory get tired as they start that last half mile.

The Central 1945 cross country team, as usual, walked off with the titles at the state track meet in Norman, the A. and M. meet at Stillwater, and the city meet at Tulsa Stadium.

Under the expert guidance of Coach William Lantz, the Central team has placed first in every state meet at Norman since the annual events have been held. Our teams have now gained permanent possession of two cups, one awarded each year to the winning team and given to the school which wins it three times in succession, and have had two years' possession of another.

Starting the season with no returning lettermen, the team built up the endurance it needed with long hours of strenuous training.

Lettermen this year are Darrel Baker, Ray Burns, Bob Gregory, Bill Humphreys, Carl Jacobsen, R. C. Slocum, Wallace Standridge, and Bill Vaughn. Boys who expect to return next year to try to win the state meet again are Darrel Baker, Ray Burns, Bill Humphreys, Carl Jacobsen, R. C. Slocum, and Bill Vaughn.

Missing from the picture is Bill Vaughn.

GOLF TEAM

The Tulsa Central golf team, under the coaching of Melvin E. Riggs, captured everything in the way of golf in the 1944 season.

Captained by Jerry Barnett, the Braves started off their season by downing the Bartlesville Wildcats $10\frac{1}{2}$ to $4\frac{1}{2}$. At the conference meet in which the Braves took first place, Paul Thieman shot an amazing score of 77 - 74 in 36 holes. Again the Centralites met Bartlesville on the Wildcat's home course and beat them by the narrow margin of 8 to 7.

Next on Central's undefeated list of teams was Rogers. The Braves trounced Rogers decisively $15\frac{1}{2}$ to $2\frac{1}{2}$. Our team then traveled to the state meet and walked away with all honors, winning the medalist, the two-ball, and four ball championships. The four boys, Jerry Barnett, Fred Daniel, Bob McCarthy, and Paul Thieman placed first, second, fourth, and eighth respectively.

Lettermen were Jerry Barnett, Fred Daniel, Bob McCarthy, and Paul Thieman. Returning next year to carry on the winning habit of this foursome are Bob McCarthy and Fred Daniel.

BASKETBALL TEAM

With six lettermen from last year as a nucleus, the 1944-1945 Central basketball team was one of the strongest teams ever put together by this school and one of the best and most seasoned teams in the state.

Led by veteran Coach Grady Skillern, the Central team compiled a record of seventeen consecutive victories in the regular season, winning the city and Oklahoma Six titles in the process. In the play-offs, the Braves won their first game but were finally beaten in the semi-finals of the regional tournament by a Claremore team that was on its toes. The Claremore Zebras had to battle furiously for this game, as the Braves kept it even throughout the regular four quarters and carried it into an overtime period.

Returning lettermen this year were Burrell Lewis, Bob Miller, Keith Miller, John McCain, Jerry O'Brien, and John Sivadon. At the end of the season Burrell Lewis was chosen by a committee of newspapermen as forward on the North squad of the first All-State team; John Sivadon received a place as guard on the second team.

TRACK TEAM

*Parmer pushes toward first place in the mile relay—
Tommy Johnston, Parmer Gillespie, Bobbie Earl.*

The Central track team of 1944, starting with only four lettermen, came through with a good season. Although they were not victorious at every meet, Coach Lantz's boys always made a good showing.

Starting off the season victoriously at a triangle-meet with Webster and Cleveland, the Braves defeated these two teams by a wide margin. Then, with hopes high, they were downed in a dual meet by a strong Rogers team fifty-four and two thirds to sixty-three and one half. The Central Braves made a comeback by taking second place in the conference meet.

In the state meet the Braves duplicated this feat. Two of the boys, Eldon Ferguson and Bob Butler, placed first in the mile, the half mile, and the high jump; there were numerous seconds and thirds. The Braves then returned home to finish off their season by placing second in the All-City meet.

The lettermen for the 1944 season were Lawrence Brown, Bob Butler, Eldon Ferguson, John Ferguson, John Fraser, Parmer Gillespie, Bob Gregory, Stanley Gwinn, Leo Hillman, Keith Hoff, Vern Oakley, Harry Owens, Charles Owens, Ed Randalls, and Bob Saunders. Returning for the 1945 season will be Bob Gregory, Stanley Gwinn, and Charles Owens.

TENNIS TEAM

Carrying on the winning habit of most Central tennis teams, the 1943-1944 Braves won five out of six dual meets and also captured second place in singles in the Oklahoma Six Conference, although only three lettermen, Gerald Eckley, Don Reid, and Gene Traband, remained from the previous year.

However, of the seven boys who were awarded letters at the end of the year, Captain Gerald Eckley, Don Guier, Bill Hall, Jerry Hallford, Don Reid, Alan Swain, and Gene Traband, four hope to return for tennis matches in 1944-1945. The four boys Coach Rex Peery is counting on to bowl over those brawny opponents are Billy Hall, Jerry Hallford, Alan Swain, and Gene Traband.

In our four meetings of the year with Rogers, the Braves won three and bowed to the Ropers in only one contest. Bartlesville was a pushover for the Central aggregation, and the boys again went out successfully against the Shawnee team.

WRESTLING TEAM

BELOW: Referee Grant Wright watches Bill Klein pinning Danny Vaughn of Oklahoma City Central.

Climaxing another undefeated season, the Central 1944-1945 wrestling team won the city championship and the state championship.

Under the coaching of Mr. Rex Peery and Mr. Melvin E. Riggs, four of the wrestlers, Charles Brown, Edgar Welch, Richard Dickenson, and Bill Klein, were undefeated during the season; six of them, Charles Brown, Tom Hanson, Edgar Welch, Richard Dickenson, Bill Klein, and Arlie Curry, were state champions; and two, David Brazeal and Larry Kilgore, came out with third place awards in the state championship meet.

The Braves, starting the season with only three returning lettermen, David Brazeal, Bill Klein, and Richard Dickenson, began by defeating Perry by a score of 22 to 16. In the meets which followed, the Central team defeated Webster, 30-6 and 28-6; Rogers, 34-0 and 26-6; Stillwater, 34-0; Oklahoma City Classen, 33-3; Bristow, 42-0; Oklahoma City Central, 41-3; and the Naval Air Gunnery School at Purcell, 38-0.

Lettermen named this season were Charles Jackson, Gene McDonald, Arlie Curry, Bill Klein, Richard Dickenson, Edgar Welch, Larry Kilgore, Tom Hanson, Charles Brown, David Brazeal, Joe Whitaker, Ted Drakos, and Rex Green. Bill Klein was elected honorary captain for the season.

McCormick, Bert Goble, Bob Sheldon, Wilburn Keith, John Morley, Bill Daniel. FOURTH ROW: Coach Melvin E. Riggs, Floyd Phariss, Joe Whitaker, Dave Brazeal, Coach Rex Peery.

SOFTBALL TEAM

In 1944, their fifth season of competition, the softball Braves played a shortened schedule. Since there was no Oklahoma Six Conference in this sport, competitors were limited to teams in this city.

Coach Malcolm Orr named thirteen lettermen at the end of the season—John Allred, Bill Boyd, Arnold Brown, Vernon Brown, Max Coley, Teddy Drakos, Norwood Dunham, Bill Hunter, Jack Larrabee, Dale Morrow, Perry Moss, Eddy Robinson, and Mike Saxon.

Central started the season with seven returning lettermen—John Allred, Arnold Brown, Vernon Brown, Dale Morrow, Perry Moss, Ed Robinson, and Mike Saxon. The Braves had a favorable percentage, winning three games and dropping two to the opposition. Captain Dale Morrow's players whitewashed the Douglas Modification Center team by a score of 15 to 0; split a doubleheader with Webster, winning, 9 to 5, and losing, 3 to 8; then divided two with Rogers, losing the first game, 1 to 2, but taking the afterpiece, 2 to 1.

The four players Coach Orr is hoping will be around for the 1945 season are Vernon Brown, Max Coley, Teddy Drakos, and Jack Larrabee.

Girls' Physical Education at Central

The objectives of the Girls' Physical Education Department are to develop and maintain physical and mental health, and to build up an interest in sports which will be valuable to the girls all their lives.

Toward this end the department realizes the importance of recognizing individual differences and limitations. Before any girl is placed in a gym class, her heart is examined to see if she should participate in sports. Twice a semester every girl is given a physical examination, especially adapted to discover posture defects. In the spring and fall a picture is taken of each girl by silhouetteograph camera, which further brings out faults in need of correction. Those whose posture seems to need correction most are then placed in the individual gym classes, where they receive instruction and supervision in correcting their postures; or they rest, if they are unable to undertake any strenuous activities.

For the majority of girls there is an extensive program of team games such as field hockey, volley ball, and softball; and also individualized sports, consisting of tennis and swimming. This curriculum is supplemented by dancing and other exercises. Although team games cannot be participated in after leaving school, they develop sportsmanship and competitive spirit and give the girls an interest in watching sports events.

In addition to the regular in-school training the extra curricular activities provide a chance for those girls with more ability to go out for teams and to develop their skills more highly. In season, this program offers extra training in archery, field hockey, volley ball, basketball, softball, swimming, and tennis.

Tomorrow's life with increased leisure promises new development in culture for all. Through aesthetic organizations here at Central High School, students not only learn to enjoy the arts, but also make the most of present opportunities for good fellowship with talented students of similar interests.

THE SENATE

The Senate, main governing body of Central, is composed of sixty-three senators — three elected from each class and two from each high school organization. When these representatives meet, many different ideas on responsibilities and obligations of high school students are reasoned out and extended throughout the school.

Duff Arnold leads a heated discussion among senate members at the Inter-School Council at Webster.

Every alternate Friday morning at 8:20 Senate meeting is called to order by its competent president, Sam Brenner. Duff Arnold stands by, ready to take over in case Sam is absent. After the flag salute, Nancy Green, recording secretary, reads the bulletin and minutes of the previous meeting. Then Jeanne Vinson, corresponding secretary, begins the task of collecting passes from tardy senators. After Sandy Jones has given the treasurer's report, animated discussions follow until the motion to adjourn is made at 9:10, invariably.

During this, its twenty-fifth consecutive year, the Senate has achieved outstanding success in all activities it has undertaken. Aiding in this achievement have been its two sponsors—Mr. Keene C. Van Orden, until he left in November, and Miss Eunice Lewis, who then became the adviser.

The chairmen of the special committees for this year were Credential, Marvin Lomax; Publicity, Don Cole; and Judiciary, Bill McCoy, all appointed by the president. Led by Bill McCoy, one important project of the Judiciary Committee was revision of the House-Senate constitution.

THE SENATE

The Senate had as its chief projects this year improvement of the appearance of the school, sponsorship of student recreation, and participation in the war effort.

With these worthy goals in mind the Senate and the House of Representatives together sponsored a campaign for securing pledges to buy increased amounts of stamps and bonds in the Sixth War Loan Drive. This campaign, led by Sam Brenner and Eddie Pitcher (House of Representatives), was successful in that Central obtained $159,000 in pledges.

The first all-school dance of the year, sponsored by the Senate and the House, was held in the gymnasium on November 17, with the Daze band furnishing music.

The inter-city student council convention was held Friday, January 12, at Webster High School. "Today's Teen-agers Tomorrow" was the theme of the meeting, and the day's schedule included a tour of the building, a general assembly, and interesting group and panel discussions. Students from both the House and Senate also attended a convention of the Southern Association of Student Government in Port Arthur, Texas, in April.

These conventions of the governing bodies of the high schools were highly profitable.

Central senators, having participated in this democratic organization, have gained a clear perception of our American way of life and thus will be better qualified to see that democracy is maintained in America for coming generations.

The senate promotes better inter-school relationship as shown by the panel representing the three high schools.

The HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House of Representatives, most representative organization in Central, is made up of one member from each home room in school. These members are elected because of their citizenship and scholastic standings.

This democratic organization helps bring about better cooperation and relationship between students and faculty, because it gives the students a voice in governing the school. Their sponsor, Mr. Lawrence Shepherd, is always on hand to help out on matters of school policies.

"The dissenting vote." Pat Burns and Katherine Griffith oppose the issue.

Officers of the House of Representatives are Eddie Pitcher, speaker of the House; Pat Burns, speaker pro tempore; Alma Rae Womble, recording secretary; Mary Jane Orman, corresponding secretary; Ray Robbins, treasurer; Gene Anderson, parliamentarian. Gene Anderson and Mary Jane Orman also represent Central at all Inter-school Council meetings.

After the meetings, which are held on alternate Thursdays at eighty-thirty, the representatives make reports to their home rooms about the business discussed in the House of Representatives.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

This year much of the business of the House of Representatives concerned war bonds and stamps. Together with the Senate, the House sponsored the bond pledge drive for the central district.

For recreation the House of Representatives sponsored dances. These dances which took place in the gymnasium after football and basketball games were really a great success, because of the careful planning of the sponsors.

In January the Inter-School Convention was held at Webster. Delegates from the governing bodies of Central, Webster, and Will Rogers participated. The discussions for the day centered around the theme, "Today's Teen-Agers Tomorrow." The evening's entertainment included a buffet supper, a basketball game, and a dance at Will Rogers. The convention was a great success, according to those who attended.

The House members will be the leaders of a happier tomorrow because they are learning the principles of democracy and self government through their daily activities in school government.

"I second the motion!" exclaims Ray Robbins, member of the House of Representatives.

CAMARATA CLUB

"Order, Order" is a familiar command, shouted to all Camaratas every Wednesday morning by President Mary Lou Binford so that Secretary Rosemary Knoblock may call the roll. The club then listens to reports made by Treasurer Mary LeFlore and Senators Gloria Monnet and Virginia Daugherty. Vice president Alice Farmer is merely "attendant-at-court," but an alert one; she will be well informed when she has to officiate.

The War Cry, a Salvation Army magazine sold shortly after Thanksgiving, brought fifty dollars to the Camaratas last year. Before the war all money earned by the Camaratas went into the student aid fund. Since the beginning of the war, all money has gone into war bonds bought in the name of student aid. Already members have deposited two one-hundred-dollar bonds and they hope to buy another this year.

You also see Camaratas in their blue and white uniforms ushering at the plays, P.-T.A. reception, and Back-to-School Night.

Selling Christmas cards has become a tradition at Christmas time but because of the war, the club found it impossible to procure cards to sell this year.

Girls whose pictures do not appear in this group are Mary Sue Hale, Pat Burns, and Mariellen Wright.

Williams, Bob Lynch, Freva Graves, Dick McKewon, Buster Russell, Nelmarie Chouteau, Catherine Marsh.

TULSA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

With a membership this year of one hundred Central students, the Tulsa Historical Society, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Louise M. Whitham, has ardently studied and publicized facts concerning Tulsa's background.

This year the outstanding activity of the society was to put markers up for the Bird Creek Battlefield. Having the shafts cut and earning the money for them was only part of the project. Because of transportation difficulties, the organization is now faced with the problem of getting the shafts here from Georgia, where they were made.

Another benefaction to posterity was to make photostatic copies of Tulsa's old newspapers and documents for future reference material. Students earned the money through the sale of historical postcards.

Valuable contributions to the community were the interviews found every week in the Sunday World. Students obtained information from early settlers of Tulsa, telling their stories in a series of articles under the heading of "Early Days in Tulsa."

Officers of the society are Bob Vassar, president; Richard Williams, vice president; Rebecca Foster, secretary; Betty Lee, treasurer; Joyce Brix and Mary Bryant, senators.

Mr. Gideon Graham tells Nelmarie Chouteau, Helen Shurtleff, Bob Vassar, and other students about wild life in Tulsa before statehood.

ADVERTISING BOARD

With John Lally leading the group, the Advertising Board has attained great success this year. The enthusiastic and capable members directed the advertising for all speech arts productions, P.-T.A. receptions, the P.-T.A. membership drive, the annual Daze, and the annual opera. The board also gave a lot of time and service in behalf of the activity budget campaign and the check-up work which followed. Members cooperated in emergency drives such as the Sixth War Loan Drive.

The meetings are held every Monday morning in room 229, at eight-thirty. Helping John are Richard Spann, vice president; Betty Falle, secretary-treasurer; Marvin Lomax, senior senator; and Anna Belle Hales, junior senator. Mr. R. C. Reynolds is the zealous sponsor.

At the weekly meetings members discuss and plan new sales campaigns. Energy and initiative play an important role in planning and carrying out the campaign, but there are good times too. The members are not likely to forget the fun they had, nor the colds they caught, when they went Christmas caroling this year.

The Advertising Board members gain valuable experience by working with this publicity-producing organization.

John Lally gives Betty Loranger and Mari-leane Thompson reminders for distribution to budget ticket holders.

FOURTH Row: Paul Ache, Bob Coon, David Miller, Alma Rae Womble, Clyde Johnson, Bob Brite, Keith Miller, Bob Alexander, Bill McCoy, Bill Baker.

SPEAKERS' BUREAU

Under the direction of Miss Alphild Larson, the Speakers' Bureau has had another successful year of work and play.

President Bill Meek, on alternate Monday and Tuesday mornings, has obtained order despite the frequent outbursts by the more energetic debaters—Bill McCoy, Bob Coon, Alice Farmer, and Clyde Johnson.

The year's work of debates, drives, speeches for civic organizations, assembly programs, and Daze work was launched with an eight o'clock breakfast at Bishop's. At this meeting the club elected and installed officers.

Some of the highlights of the meetings this year have been the interesting hobby talks by Sid Matles, Jay O'Meilia, and Nancy Green, open forums, platforms, expository talks, and the unforgettable debates. Because of their excellence in platform speaking, several members of Speakers' Bureau have been asked by Town Hall to introduce noted out-of-town guests at Town Hall meetings.

Besides President Meek, other officers of the club are Alma Rae Womble, secretary; Jay O'Meilia, vice president; Don Cole, Bob Coon, senators; and Don Kauffmann, corresponding secretary.

Keith Miller and Bill Meek plan next week's program.

CENTRAL HIGH

ROSEMARY JONES
Queen of the Band

The band started the year industriously, practicing the popular pep songs and spectacular marching formations observers enjoy so much at football games. The ninety-two band members, under the direction of Mr. Clarence Gates, also enlivened pep assemblies, basketball games, and civic projects. In the spring, concerts were given for students and the public.

THIRD ROW: John Lally, Betty Wilcox, Willard Bodine, Ronald Evans, Wesley Gray, Charles Dickerson, Clyde Jones, Bill Dysart, Ray Anderson, Lavon Bonar.

THE OPERA CLUB

The Opera Club through its appearances in assemblies and the presentation of the annual opera offers inspiration and enjoyment to students and friends at Central High School.

dent; Carolyn Martin, secretary-treasurer; Betty Wilcox and Elvin Bumgarner, senators; has led the Opera Club through another outstanding year. Mrs. Frances Anderson directed the club this year because of the absence of Mr. Gerald Whitney, who is serving in the United States Army.

Throughout the year the Opera Club made appearances on assembly programs, also participating in the annual singing of the beautiful Messiah Chorus at Christmas. The Opera Club gives the students a chance to develop their talent by group singing, solo work, and vocal exercises given daily. They also develop an appreciation of good music and become more familiar with the lives of famous composers.

The Opera Club consists of students from all three classes—sophomore, junior, and senior. There are approximately seventy members this year. For the first time in some years the club had its Tom Tom pictures made without the costumes of the annual opera.

"While the cat's away the mice will play," sing Elois Fry, Lois DeRue, Vivian Curry.

THE OPERA CLUB

The comic opera, "Mademoiselle Modiste," was the most important event this year, with Betty Wilcox as Fifi or Mademoiselle Modiste; Charles Dickerson as Captain Eteinne, her lover; John Lally as Captain Eteinne's uncle, the count; Yetta Johnson as his sister, Marie Louise; Bob Hampton as Gaston, a social climber on his mother's money; and Vivian Curry as Gaston's mother, Madam Cecille. The two daughters of Madam Cecille were Nanette and Fanchette or in real life Lois DeRue and Elois Fry. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Bent were portrayed by Martha Daniels and Dale Whitford.

The setting of "Mademoiselle Modiste" was in a hat shop in France, owned by Madam Cecille. Fifi worked there. In order that Fifi would work in the hat shop for nothing, Madam Cecille wished Fifi to marry her son Gaston. However, Captain Eteinne and Fifi were in love, but the count, Captain Eteinne's rich uncle, forbade such a match as a shop-girl and a captain in the army of France. This triangle with its complications produced many exciting and comical situations in "Mademoiselle Modiste," but as usual true love triumphed.

Giving the opera as the successful climax of the year's activities, members of the club have added one more link to the cultural heritage of Central High School.

The Footman's Chorus seems to be having a little trouble practicing.

CENTRAL HIGH

Franz Engle, Leslie Arnold, Shirley Atkins, and Ruth Haynes have their oboes and bassoons ready for orchestra practice.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Clarence F. Gates the orchestra has attained a high place in the estimation of their public.

These officers serve as a cabinet to plan extracurricular activities and social affairs for the group.

ORCHESTRA

SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Each day during the fourth hour, in room 237, members of the orchestra scramble to take their instruments from their cases and hurry to their chairs to begin a day's work. The squeaks and shrill sounds of tuning up soon blend into some harmonious composition such as Beethoven or Schubert.

This year, the orchestra has given outstanding performances at plays, at assemblies, at the opera, and at the annual spring concert. Perhaps the most outstanding and inspiring performance of all was Handel's Christmas "Messiah," which gave a vivid example of the orchestra's musical skill and talent.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

This year A Cappella, under the competent direction of Mr. George Oscar Bowen, has reached new heights of popularity. The choir is ever a source of enjoyment, whenever and wherever it appears—whether on Central assembly programs, civic affairs, or church activities.

Through the cooperation of the officers, John McCain, efficient president; Sally Overstreet and Charles Parker, first and second vice presidents respectively; Ruth Mase, faithful collector of choir funds; Joy Wentworth, senior senator; John Brantly and Willard Bodine, librarians, this vocal organization has become an outstanding leader in a cappella singing.

An array of bright and smiling faces of the choir after a successful performance!

The chorus has taken part in various programs, including the Thanksgiving assemblies and other holiday entertainment. During the Christmas season, for example, the choir strolled through the halls at Central singing with new beauty the ever-loved carols of the Yuletide. Then, highlighting the musical year, the group attired in the familiar maroon robes once again added to Central's appreciation of Christmas by participating in the singing of Handel's "Messiah."

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

As in the past, members of the A Cappella organization have again this year found a particular enjoyment in singing such songs as "God Is a Spirit," "The Lord Is My Shepherd," "Fairest Lord Jesus," "Awake, Awake," and from "The Messiah"—"The Hallelujah Chorus" and "For Unto Us a Child Is Born." Each person takes an active part in the group, singing enthusiastically the songs he loves.

The word a cappella in Italian musical terms means literally, "as in chapel or church." However, today it has come to be applied to compositions intended to be sung "without instrumental accompaniment." This chorus possesses to a fine degree the distinctive quality of close harmony so necessary to a choir lacking accompaniment, and therefore is always a pleasing addition to any program.

Central High School feels justifiable pride in this 1945 A Cappella choir, which not only has upheld the splendid work of choirs in the previous years but also has established an enviable record of its own in continuing the traditional musical programs of school and community.

Willard Bodine looks at Joan Dixon to find the source of those melodious tones, as Billie Bivans looks on.

RED FEATHER CABINET

RED FEATHERS

"Yea, Central! Yea, Braves!" is one of the many yells that helped lead the teams to victory this year. Six hundred and twenty-five strong, the Red Feathers were under the leadership of Miss Ruth Holton, Miss Ruth Draper, and Miss Laurine Hager, sponsors;

Nell Bradshaw, president; Thelma Back, vice president; Rosemary Jones, secretary; Pat Burns, treasurer; Johnnie Farmer, Mary LeFlore, senators; Virginia Dutke, Franque Mattoon, Ann Jarrett, Marjorie Blackburn, Marianne Blackburn, cheer leaders.

Every Thursday the girls met in the North Auditorium. When a member was not present, she received an unexcused absence.

To increase school spirit, Red Feathers and Scalpers sold red and white decals, bearing the official seal and the name of Central High School.

White sweaters and red skirts made an impressive picture at all the football games. The girls not only participated in the yells at the football and basketball games but also took part in the Coronation assembly and in many pep assemblies.

"Yea, Central! Yea, Braves!" yells Franque Mattoon, cheer leader.

LOWER: "Will the meeting please come to order?" asks Nell Bradshaw, president.

LETTERMEN

LETTERMEN

The Lettermen's Club was originally organized in September, 1925, as the Boys' Athletic Council, to assist the athletic program in every way possible, and to encourage good sportsmanship, school spirit, and loyalty. Now, since there are so many boys participating in so many different sports, it has the added purpose of getting the boys together to become better acquainted with each other.

The club, sponsored by Mr. Grady Skillern, is open to all boys who have won letters in sixth hour athletics, and to the senior managers. A boy automatically becomes a member when he has earned a "T" and when he has been voted in by the other members of the club.

This year's Lettermen are presided over by Duff Arnold, or, in his absence, by Stan Gwinn. Max Coley acts as secretary and tries to get the members to meeting on time. Representing the athletes in the Senate are Gyondal Smith and Teddy Drakos.

Meetings are held every other Thursday during home room, when the boys have discussions or a program. Sometimes students provide the entertainment; on the other occasions outstanding sports leaders talk to the club about the fields in which they excel, or the club enjoys movies of various athletic events.

Duff Arnold keeps his fellow lettermen amused.

SCALPERS

The Scalpers, boys' pep organization approximately two hundred strong, has, with the aid of the Red Feathers, given our Central Braves excellent support this year.

A crimson shirt with SCALPERS across the back and the member's name on the shirt pocket distinguishes a Scalper from the rest of the boys in the student body.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. John A. Venable, and Mr. H. E. McPhail, the officers are Gerald Loveall, president, who leads the meetings held on Wednesday in the North Auditorium; Duff Arnold, vice president, who takes over in the absence of the president; Don White, secretary; Jay O'Meilia, treasurer; Bob Brite and Gene Flippo, senators.

Cheerleaders, who encourage the boys in those heart-warming yells, are Carl Stein, all-school cheerleader; Bob Weddle and Carl Bolton, assistants.

The Scalpers' annual picnic, held this year as usual at Mohawk Park, adds another enjoyable chapter to the life of the boys' pep organization.

*"Bo-boski-watten-dotten," chant
Carl Bolton and Virginia Dutke.*

GIRLS' LEAGUE REPRESENTATIVES

ALPHA KEYSTONERS

Each Monday evening in the Y.M.C.A. Thelma Lee Back calls a group of junior and senior girls to order. The program continues according to the following sample. Mary Margaret Huse calls the roll and reads the minutes of the previous meeting. Vice President Pat Walsh reads a scripture and a prayer, followed by the flag salute. Then, with Roseann Evans taking charge, the members plan a backward dance, a halloween party, or a pot luck supper as they did this year. After this plan-making, Helen Wolfe announces that, "We have three dollars and thirteen cents in our treasury and there is one dollar fifty-five cents in back dues to be paid." Next Senator Marilou Kitchen gives her report from the last senate meeting.

These members listen attentively as the meeting goes on.

Following the regular routine of the Alpha meeting, a program is given, carefully planned in advance by program chairmen Alice Price and Mary Bovaird. For the program there might be a speaker such as the one who lectured on hair dressing, or there might be entertainment such as singing or instrumental music given by talented members.

ALPHA KEYSTONERS

ALPHA KEYSTONERS

Mrs. Mary Wood Foster, sponsor of all the Keystone clubs of the high schools, comes in and out of meeting as often as possible, for she must divide her time equally among all the Keystone organizations. However Miss Mary Jo Steele, who sponsors Alpha only, is able to spend all of her time in aiding the girls with their projects.

Each Monday after the business meeting has been taken care of, the Alpha Keystone members meet with Sigma Hi-Y for a round table discussion about numerous topics such as dating, current events, or community affairs. Of these the most favored topic is dating for the reason that all members are well informed on this subject! After the interesting and friendly discussions have ceased, everyone has a chance to waltz or strut to well-known popular tunes. Meetings usually break up about nine o'clock.

As the 1945 school year ends, members look back upon a full program of fun, social activity, and mental stimulation.

Alpha officers take charge at their weekly gathering.

BETA KEYSTONERS

BETA KEYSTONERS

With Helen Wickizer as president, Beta sponsored many fun-giving events such as a skating party, a moonlight hike, and a picnic to Lost City with the Junior-Senior and Triangle Hi-Y. Also Beta enthusiastically participated in the style show, mothers' tea, and the induction of new members, all annual Keystoner affairs.

The Beta cabinet is much interested in reading the accurate minutes of Mary Jo Littlefield, secretary.

Among the many Beta members represented at the annual "Run the City" day were Bette Nuckolls, Betty Jane Thomas, and Jo Ann Faulkner. Patti Cecil was private secretary to the mayor-for-the-day, Bob Brite.

Miss Betty Urban of the Y.M.C.A. sponsors this chapter. The cabinet is composed of Helen Wickizer, president; Pat Turner, vice president; Mary Jo Littlefield, secretary; Melba Myers, treasurer; Marjorie Akins, social chairman; Nancy Kennedy, program chairman; Bette Nuckolls and Marilyn Marshall, senior and junior senators respectively.

BETA KEYSTONERS

BETA KEYSTONERS

Meetings are held at the Y.M.C.A. every Tuesday evening at seven-thirty. Because of Beta's membership of ninety, the largest of any of the Keystoner chapters, the meetings are always well attended.

At each meeting some guest speaker or talented member presents a program. Among the guest speakers this year were Everett Lindsay, and a group of Waves. Several panel discussions on dating held the enthusiastic attention of many of the Beta members. Talent and "truth or consequences" programs rounded out the entertainment.

The meetings are always closed with the friendship circle creed, "Let us strive to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." After the good-night circle, members of Beta stay to dance with members of the two Hi-Y chapters meeting that night.

Beta members select the devotional for next meeting. Fern Neck, Bernice Williams, Mary Ann Morse, Mary Jo Littlefield.

DELTA KEYSTONERS

DELTA KEYSTONERS

By combining fun with worthwhile projects, the Delta Keystoneers have had a full calendar of activities this year.

The members gather for meetings at 7:30 every Tuesday evening at the Y.M.C.A. Sally Overstreet, the enthusiastic president, calls the meeting to order. The other officers are Zeeda Gebhart, vice president; Joyce Hegwer, secretary; Jane Bingham, treasurer; and Pat Carmack, senator. The business is terminated early, because the members are eager to hear one of their interesting programs. Among the programs most enjoyed by the girls was a talk by Roger Devlin, more commonly known as the Tribune's Rambler.

For a project, the club spent a lot of time making scrapbooks for the U.S.O., to be distributed among wounded soldiers in hospitals in this vicinity.

This year the Deltas were challenged by Beta Keystoneers to a game of powder-puff football. The Deltas won, seven to nothing, and their opponents paid the forfeit by giving a picnic. Besides picnics, hayrides, a hobo-party, and pot-luck suppers, the club made a success of one of the biggest events of the year—their spring carnival. There were many amusement booths, a spook house, a refreshment concession, and a stage show.

The good fellowship enjoyed by members of Delta will be a pleasant memory for many years. They have also increased their spiritual faith throughout the year, by cooperating in the devotionals held at each meeting.

These fun-loving Delta Keystoneers are making plans for their annual powder-puff football game with Beta Keystoneers.

SIGMA HI-Y

SIGMA HI-Y

The motto of Sigma Hi-Y is: "I shall try to maintain and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community." Proof of the sincerity of this pledge has been demonstrated by the useful activities Sigma has taken part in this year. Every week an educational program or speaker is heard, charity projects are undertaken, and parties are planned. This year the "run-the-city-for-a-day" event was enthusiastically undertaken by many Sigma members, including John Rowley, Gene Anderson, who became finance and revenue commissioner, John Tipton, candidate for water commissioner, and Ed Beadle, candidate for street commissioner.

In addition to their more serious affairs, the Sigmas have sponsored numerous moonlight hikes and hayrides, a result of the thoughtful arrangements of the social chairman, John Tipton.

Every Monday evening at seven-thirty, meetings are held. Officers are Gene Anderson, president; Ray Robbins, treasurer; Johnnie Ware, parliamentarian; Ed Beadle and Ted Haugh, senators.

Fun and frolic continue at the Y.M.C.A. until nine o'clock when the meeting is brought to a close with the traditional friendship circle, in which each boy, clasping the hand of his fellow member, joins earnestly in prayer. This Sigma meeting procedure is significant in that it helps to build the high school student into a finer man, with worthy ideals.

Bob Ragland reluctantly pays his dollar to Gene Anderson for Sigma's ranch party.

TRIANGLE HI-Y

TRIANGLE HI-Y

The purpose of all Hi-Y organizations is to promote friendship among their members. This year the Triangle chapter feels that it has indeed accomplished this goal.

A year filled with fun and worthwhile activities will long be remembered by these boys. Among the many events this chapter participated in, the most interesting were the management of the city for a day and the boys' membership campaign for the Y.M.C.A.

Some of the Triangle members who took part in the City-Hi-Y-Keystoner election and helped make the day a success were Bob Vassar, candidate for mayor; Charles Gibbs, fire and police commissioner; and Allen Smith, water commissioner.

The favorable record Triangle Hi-Y established this year would not have been possible without the guidance of its competent president, Bob Vassar, and other officers: vice president, Charles Gibbs; secretary, Gerald Van Cleave; treasurer, Scott Lysinger; social chairman, Jimmy Wright; and program chairman, Allen Smith.

"He always gets his man." Charles Gibbs, Triangle Hi-Y member, arrests Sam Byrd, Central mathematics teacher, for overworking students.

Besides gaining many new friends in this useful organization, members learned to show consideration for others at all times.

Every Tuesday night about seven-thirty, there is a commotion on the second floor of the Y.M.C.A. However, the neighbors don't mind, because it is just Bob Gregory getting the Junior-Senior Hi-Y under way for a short business meeting. Jack Compton reads the minutes of the last meeting, and then Carl Jacobsen collects the dues and reads the financial report. After the business meeting the boys either have a guest speaker, go swimming, or have a joint meeting with one of the Keystoner clubs. Ed Beadle and Charles Lindsey, as senators, help improve the school.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Harold Nichols the boys had a successful season in all undertakings. The biggest event of the year was the annual run-the-city-for-a-day election, in which Bob Brite was elected mayor and Jack Larrabee, water commissioner. They ran the city like experienced politicians. The "city officials" presented many resolutions. Among them were the following: to provide a legal all-school walkout to the school winning the state championship in football; to give a vote of thanks to Judge James Melone and the juvenile delinquency board for their aid in bringing about a decrease in delinquency. The mayor issued a proclamation establishing the annual Hi-Y and Keystoner Y.M.C.A. membership drive.

Parties, hayrides, and dances gave social entertainment to the boys and, together with the more serious activities, helped to make a well rounded program for the year.

"The boss for a day!" Bob Brite, Junior-Senior Hi-Y member, takes over the office of mayor.

SCHOOL LIFE STAFF

TULSA SCHOOL LIFE

School Life, under the sponsorship of Miss Anna K. Crotchett, offers experience to students whose talents are inclined toward journalism.

General staff work includes writing columns, editorials, features, news stories, headlines, advertisements, and delivering the finished product Thursday mornings. Besides participating in these duties, busy co-editors Bernice Williams and David Miller, with page editors Stewart Robinson, Rolleen Taylor, Mary Ann Morse, Helen Rozzell, Teddy Drakos, and Mary Jo Littlefield work in the print shop when the type is put into the form, and take the responsibility for reading and making corrections on the final page proofs. Editors spend much of their time also before and after school and on Saturdays, planning page lay-outs and timely editorials.

Initiative is the keynote behind many of the unusual and clever articles written. Always on the alert for men and women celebrities, persevering students make their own appointments for interviews, eagerly contributing time and effort for the betterment of the paper. Personal information was obtained this year from such notables as Governor and Mrs. Thomas Dewey, Jay Allen, Will Durant, Upton Close and Alexander Brailowsky.

As a result of their cooperative attitude, the School Life members may again be given credit for establishing and maintaining an outstanding newspaper.

Rolleen Taylor, lucky SCHOOL LIFE reporter, has the tables turned when she interviews Harry James.

TOM TOM STAFF

TOM TOM STAFF

Work started for the Tom Tom members their first day at school when they began to make a choice of the theme for the 1945 yearbook. The theme having been decided, the staff presented it to the Tom Tom board for approval. To devise a foreword in keeping with the theme, a committee of three girls collaborated, using ideas and suggestions of all members of the class.

Making arrangements for pictures was considered the most difficult work by all who participated in it. This process included giving appointments to seniors for individual pictures, planning group pictures, assisting the photographer, and properly identifying all the people in the pictures.

At any time this year students were likely to be confronted by a wild-eyed staff member waving a picture, and impolitely demanding, "Do you know who this is?," or to see a shivering huddle of pathetic people vainly attempting to arrange twenty to fifty students in a pictorially pulchritudinous group.

Late in the first semester the organization members elected Betty Laird editor; and Margie Smiley and Pat Walsh business managers.

"Look at the birdie." Joan Rogers and Mr. Dick Gray, photographer, go through the daily routine of taking group pictures for the Tom Tom.

STUDENT CUSTODIANS

GAMBITZERS

FIRST Row: Richard Spees, R. C. Cowherd, Chuck Thomas, Billy Teal, Barbara Burkhardt, Mr. Al Martin, sponsor, Lena Corley, Herbert Hartz, George Derrick, James Tate. SECOND Row: Neil Greene, Jack DeShong, Charles Ross, George Davis, Gene Manley, Glynn Hays, Bruce Phillips, Bill Hawman, Billy Graham, Ted Sullivan. THIRD Row: Ernest Madrigal, Fred Bingham, Bob Klinzing, Don Sullivan, Howard Johnson, Kenneth Gandall, LaVern Shaffer, Russel Wells, Lloyd Markham.

MEDICO CLUB

"Is there a doctor in the house?" This question is the quickest way to gain the attention of a Medico Club member at Central.

The Medico Club has met after school every Tuesday since 1933 under the able guidance of Miss Lucile Witte. Anyone who is interested may join after he has attended three consecutive meetings. Visitors are always welcome.

The club enjoys taking trips to the different hospitals and medical supply centers. The group also visits many other community health centers. Often doctors come to Central to talk to the members. Once a year the members take their traditional trip to St. John's Hospital with Dr. I. A. Nelson as host.

The Medico Club was the first to realize the need for first-aid classes and was responsible for starting the first class offered at Central. Ready to help wherever health is concerned, the Medico Club this year has assisted the Red Cross in several ways, but the most important service was the sale of Christmas seals. To fight infantile paralysis the club sponsored the March of Dimes.

Miss Annette Wolter, a physical therapist from Hillcrest Hospital, speaks to the Medico Club. Beside the speaker are Virginia Johnson and Lois Enoch.

Twice a year the club puts aside its business meetings to have a picnic, once in the fall and again in the spring.

DISTRIBUTORS' CLUB

The Distributors' Club is an organization of vocational students enrolled in cooperative part-time distributive education classes. Its purpose is to explore retail vocational opportunities and to create appreciation and interest in the distributive occupations.

Sponsored by Mrs. Loucillah Kirkpatrick, Miss Alice Young, and Miss N. Kathryn Moore, the Distributors' Club not only provides social and recreational activities to develop leadership in the field of distribution, but also plans yearly civic projects to develop and increase individual community responsibility.

Meetings are held at 6:30 o'clock on the second Tuesday evening in each month. A business meeting is followed by a dinner at Michaelis Cafeteria.

The officers of the club are president, Don Wilkerson; vice president, Gerald Webber; secretary, Bruce Murdock; treasurer, Lola Faye Price; junior senator, Jean Hall; and senior senator, Phyllis Freeman.

This year the club had a Christmas Tree party, dinner dance, and an exchange of gifts. The gifts together with the tree were given to an underprivileged children's organization.

Among the members who do not appear in the picture are Millicent Morgan, Bob Henrichs, Mary Alice Stout, and Dorothy Coleman.

"Do you like this style?" asks Jackie Bryan. Jackie Bryan, Miss Helen Glass, customer, and Betty Moritz.

In the future, modernistic facilities for travel, improved living conditions and recreation will far exceed those of today. Because of this prospect, youth looks forward to nations brought close together, homes fit for gods, entertainment provided to suit everyone; in a word, to youth's new world.

Senior Class Song, 1945

Dear Cen-tral High, Hear the pro-mise that we give to you, We will al-ways hold to your high i-deals Gui-ding all we do May we win with-out a-ny boast-ful shout, If we fail, de-spair-ing nev-er, On-ward, still on-ward climb, Till we reach our goals for ev-er May we sing your praise in the com-ing days, Though we ven-ture far a- part,

Sen- iors of Cen-tral High! May we keep your name in our heart
